DOJ OIG Releases Semiannual Report to Congress for the Period October 1, 2024–March 31, 2025

Department of Justice (DOJ) Inspector General Michael E. Horowitz announced today the release of the DOJ Office of the Inspector General's (OIG) latest semiannual report to Congress for October 1, 2024–March 31, 2025. The report, which is required by the Inspector General Act of 1978, includes details about the OIG's work and accomplishments over these 6 months, information about the OIG, and a list of the OIG's ongoing audits and reviews.

As described in today's report, during this period the DOJ OIG issued 42 reports with 156 recommendations and identified $585,629 in questioned costs. Additionally, the OIG closed 102 criminal or administrative misconduct cases, and the OIG's investigative work resulted in 30 convictions or pleas; 82 terminations, administrative disciplinary actions, and resignations; and nearly $10 million in recoveries.
